1998 National/S.C.O.C. Specialty Update

by Joey Natrass

The Chows at Ballantrae weekend is over...what a weekend...what a Chow gathering.

Saturday morning, early, the work crew moved into the venue setting up the ring at one end of the banquet double hall. Mats and baby gates were hauled in, rolled out, and taped down. Ted Barrett did a great job of setup.

Tables moved from the storage area to the dining room, 8 feet long and heavy, made this a man handling job. Cliff Goacher took care of this move. Next the chairs for 60 people, everyone gave a hand here. Soon both the ring area and dinning area were completed. The dining room was colour coordinated in blue and white, including blue chairs, creating a most attractive picture upon entering the room. Thanks Donilda Lackner and your helpers. There was a unique favour at each place setting, a biscuit in the shape of a rosette complete with club name. Special thanks to Margaret Crisson and Donilda for supplying these.

Next came the trophy table....gold and blue cloths, harvest gourds and wheat sheaves complimented the home spun throws, place mats, runners etc. which were the theme for Saturday. While this was going on, exhibitors were arriving, greeting old and new friends aveiling themselves of the coffee and donuts supplied by the club. A general air of friendliness, expectation and festivity prevailed. This was a high for all.....hey what did they put in that coffee? The pot did empty very quickly!

Among the spectators were Alan and Carol Mays, (England), friends and business associates of the Vincents. Jean Guy and Lucy Bender from Ottawa, Fran Johnson from London ON, Sue and Val Watmough from Notting-hamshire, England. Etc,etc,etc, Excitement was mounting ... finally the moment arrived. Mrs.S.Vincent, the judge for Saturday, entered the ring. One could feel the excitement mounting.

Mrs.Vincent went over each exhibit thoroughly but gently, no rush, time for those not so ring wise. Her placings were well received.

On the completion of judging while photos were being taken, a punch bowl was set up , a much needed refreshment until dinner was served. An excellent variety of dishes were served buffet style amid much joking camaraderie and general good will.

The auction was the highlight of the evening or should I say the entertainment. With Sol Falchuk as auctioneer and Donilda Lackner as his side kick, friendly insults and wise cracks flowed like good wine throughout the auction. The banter between the two and between them and the diners was hilarious. There were some much sought after items, chow oriented of course, non chow things also sold well. Our sincere thanks to all those who so kindly donated to the auction and to Sol and Donilda for putting the finishing touches to a wonderful day.

One would think that following the tremendous success of the previous day there would be a let down feeling. No way...as exhibitors and chows entered the hall Sunday morning the same excitement was evident. A contributing factor was the booth which Dave Vincent and Carol and Alan Mays were setting up. Correction...trying to set up!!! As fast as items were unpacked someone was there to whisk it out of Dave's hands. The "Oh look", "Ahs", and "I must have" rebounded off the walls. It is a tribute to Dave, Carol and Alan's masterful handling of the situation that all were served and nothing broken.

All this took place amid grooming , breaks for coffee and donuts and of course much chit chat. Also taking place at that time was the setting up of the trophy table. For today, beautiful glass in a variety of shapes and forms. The table was enhanced with the harvest theme making a very pretty picture.

After introductions, Mr.Buell requested permission to say a few words. Not having recorded these words I can only give you the gist of Mr.Buell's remarks which were" relax, this is a day to enjoy your time in the ring with your chows, there is no pressure we can take our time". And that is exactly what happened. Again we had a judge who went over each and every exhibit with care and gentleness.

Upon the completion of judging while the photography session was taking place Donilda and her ladies retired to the kitchen to prepare the luncheon. This was a very informal affair, giving everyone an opportunity to visit before the trek homewards. For some it was a long trek ...Ottawa, New York, Wisconsin, England, and N.C. With echo's of see you soon, nice to have met you, we'll be back, the weekend came to an end. A weekend to be remembered as one filled with chows, chow talk and chow people.

I cannot close without thanking our most able ring steward Mrs.Barbara Hunter, though not a chow owner, she is always interested in the breed and willing to perform this most important task for us.

There are probably several things I should have mentioned, one I know I have missed is the hospitality bags prepared by Vickie Barrett. This is not an item to be left out. Vickie prepared white shopping bags with the logo from National and S.C.O.S. on the front. The bags were filled with interesting items for humans and canines, the handles tied with blue and gold ribbon holding a card with the exhibitor's name. A nice touch to a great weekend.

Here I go again...getting forgetful. This weekend saw a first for Ontario Chows when the Altered Classes were held at our Specialties. This is a welcome addition being a competitive class and one where points are earned towards a title.

Thank you one and all for the support of the Chows at Ballantrae weekend. Win, or lose, you were all great sports, obviously enjoying the two days with those who share a common bond.

Keep that chow flag flying.

When I was out of town on business last week, my house was broken into.

My roommate, Tom, was at work during this time, as are most people on my street.

The perpetrator jimmed
the lock, deadbolt and all, then opened the front door. This happened around noontime on Tuesday. What they did not expect to see is a growling, snarling, 60-lb Chow Chow bitch (alpha bitch!) in the foyer!! My Kiri (Masterpiece Valkyrie CD, CGC [← yes]) proceeded to chase the burglar out the door, down the driveway, and over 2 blocks. I guess she gave up the chase then and laid down under a shady tree.

Some of my neighbors saw her there and knew that she did not go out without one of her "daddies". They coaxed her to their patio they gave her some cool water and let her relax. They walked over to our house and left a note on the door saying that they had Kiri.

Tom came home and realized that the house had been broken into. He let our male Chase (Masterpiece Chasin' Rainbows) out from the basement where he was. Chase was okay, but upset that the house was broken into and Kiri was missing.

Tom walked over to our neighbors and got Kiri. She is ok and seemed to enjoy the attention.

I am glad that there are good people like my neighbors (non-dog owners yet) who would take in my dog instead of leaving her out on the street in the middle of a hot day. I am glad that she had obedience training and that she responded to my neighbors as a good dog. I am glad that Kiri has a nasty and quite frightening bark and used it and her mass to scare off the intruder.

Also, I am glad that Ann Lander's article came out later that week and not earlier. For if it did, my neighbors might have called the SWAT team instead :-)

As Show Chairperson of the MLCCC 25th Anniversary Specialty, I'm really pleased to say that our event was a success in every way. Visitors from the original executive and membership attended (Mr & Mrs Hercsis, Mr & Mrs Thompson, Mr. & Mrs. Odenkirchen, and Mr. Besser) as well as guests from other countries - Jeannette and Krista Gerisch from Germany, Val & Sue Watmough from England, Oskar Brannlund of Sweden, and Helen Adamasko from the USA.

Our competition was also expanded this year by the addition of names such as Westwind Chows who incidently brought with them the sire of last year's MLCCC winner Can.Am. Ch. Chinarose a Ladies Man, XInt Chows were here, Man-Di Chows- and of course - many of our own club members were with us who travelled many miles to share in this spectacular event. We are always happy to see our friends who support us from year to year too (American and Canadian) - and for the MLCCC members - I have to give a warm extension of my gratitude for helping put the show together ... everyone deserves to feel good about the support they put behind this special event.

Imagine our surprise to learn we had SIXTEEN puppy sweepstakes entries- when in the past we averaged 6 or 7. This was wonderful for our Sweeps Judge, Miss Jessica Bjorling of Gurkan's Chows - Sweden. Methodically, and with calm and poise she selected her puppies after gentle examination and seemed to really enjoy herself as she thought about her choices. I think the puppies were very accepting of her and you'll see her winners from the results in this article.

I would like to note that the Canterbury Tails puppy bitch that won Best in Sweeps is the daughter of last year's Specialty winner as Miss Diana Phillips of Chanoyu Kennel, England judging our Specialty Classes really worked hard to bring out the best in the Chows as well as the handlers. Our entry of 40 (including 3 Altered Chows which was historical for the MLCCC) plus 9 in our Parade of Champions/Veterans was phenomenal. Judy & Ian Horne of Dark Lion Kennel learned quickly that their puppy would do well in the obedience ring when he decided to stop in the middle of an "up and back" and not move for the judge. This puppy was "stuck" to the mat ... absolutely rock solid. (We've since learned he decides to do this while on an evening stroll too - not an unusual thing for this puppy)...Miss Phillips really worked to get him to move - she took the leash herself and tugged until that little pup budged from his "stand/stay" position (Dark Lion Hooper's Hope is his name). Everyone in attendance broke into laughter to have this demonstration of what it takes to be a judge and get a Chow to perform when it indeed thinks its an 'obedience' chow (without the training). And with numerous years as a Judge, and as an experienced Chowist, published author and mentor, we were grateful to Miss Phillips for accepting our assignment this year. She worked very hard in the ring - she enjoyed herself with the dogs and it showed by her enthusiasm.

We are hoping that everyone who attended the show and banquet made it special for themselves because from what I've seen and heard - collectively we had a wonderful time. Our entry was twice that of years gone by - and our banquet numbers doubled too so in those terms, we were a huge success. The memories taken home after the weekend were whatever we made of our own time at the show and for the most part - from the personal conversations and comments to me - our friends will be back again, and we will greet them with open arms. As the President of our club, Paul Odenkirchen commented " We did one "hell" of a job"...

I would like to personally extend my thanks to those of you who participated or helped in even the smallest of ways. Your kindness has meant a great deal, and finally I'd like to thank you for allowing me to share with you this beloved breed, the Chow Chow. I congratulate all the winners, the participants who made this such a success and for the friends I've met along the way.

Bless you all - we couldn't have pulled this off without you.

OUR JUDGING HOLIDAY IN CANADA

by Margaret Ross

Now I have settled down a little, thought I had better get down to writing about our Judging Holiday in Canada. It really was wonderful with everyone treating us like royalty.

We left Glasgow airport on Oct. 14th\97 about 11 am. taking us about 11 hours to reach our destination of Calgary around 4 pm. Canadian time. David was really brave had decided he was going to have a car to get us around and see things while we were over there. We were picked up at the airport in a mini bus belonging to the company who took us to get the car. Then came the great escapade of driving on the opposite side of the road to reach the travel lodge that we had decided to stay in for a night so we could go to bed early as we were exhausted.

My niece's husband came over to escort us to their place in Okotokas where they stay, a few miles from the city of Calgary. We stayed with them for two nights, left on the Thursday to make our way through the Rockies to get to Abbotsford where the Dog Show was to be held.

The Hotels on the roads to the Rockies were all very quiet as it was their wintertime, although we only saw a little shower of snow. We were very lucky as my nephew had us all gemmed up that we would need chains on the car wheels as it was always so snowy and icy. so there must have been someone looking out for us, it was like springtime.

The food at all those places was enormous to say the least, we could have fed our four dogs and myself, (maybe not David) on the amounts they served us. Good thing I wasn't into eating as I would have been overweight on the plane back home.

Finally we reached a lovely little place called Kamloops. Stayed four days and nights at this Inn, which had everything you could want. With a big shopping precinct opposite what more could I want. Thursday came so we left Kamloops and made our way to Abbotsford and to the Hotel where Suzanne and the Chow Club of Canada had paid for a suite of rooms. What a suite it was! It was like one sees in the films - Bathroom, Kitchenette, Large bedroom and shower off the dining room. It was real swish as they say. The staff were so nice. We relaxed for a couple of hours, then Suzanne came, picked us up and took us to her home for tea and showed us all the gifts the winners were to receive and the things she had hand painted for the Auction also the Chow things. The gifts for the winners were all done up in a box of doggie goodies tied up with colourful cellophane paper with coloured bows. It was really a sight to behold.

After a blether about dogs, Suzanne's husband and Kitty as well as some other friends went out to tea. It was really nice. After we left them we went to the hotel and slept like dogs.

The next day brought us to Friday my day for Judging Puppies and Veterans. The Hall was enormous, but there were lots of other breeds showing too as it was a four day show. Chows were Friday & Saturday while other breeds were also being judged. It was a very busy show, plenty of lovely Dog Stalls where you could spend and spend if you had enough money to do so.

Our Chow ring stood out from the others because of the beautiful array of boxed gifts with their coloured bows and paper all wrapped. It really was a sight to behold. I don't know where Suzanne and Kitty had the time to do so much as Suzanne had to be at the Show for the 4 days. It was so nicely done up, a gentleman came over and said to me "Is this the Chow Fanciers of Canada ring?" I said it was, he said "I thought so. "No other breeds had such lovely array of gifts". It was nice to hear this as Suzanne had bad arthritis and was quite sore on the day and she hadn't had much rest I'm sure. They also had a big cardboard picture cartoon made of a man with a kilt on and said this was especially for David. It was real cute, looked a bit like him too. (He will kill me for saying this.) Then 2 pm arrived, time for my appearance in the Ring. Shaking like a leaf inside but showing my outer confidence I did Puppies and Veterans which were lovely and in good coats. How they do it

I would like to know, I thought they were all nice doggies. The Veterans did very well considering some of their ages. They were all so well groomed. My sister and brother-in-law came to see me do my judging. Charlie my brother-in-law, took a good video which you will maybe see some time, once we get the speed changed from theirs to ours. I finally made my decisions for puppy & veteran and everyone seemed pleased. Some of the exhibitors had travelled thousands of miles to the Chow Show.

They were all very nice and friendly to us. Even if we didn't pick their doggies. I finished about 4:30 pm and was really tired but I took my time over the puppies gently but firmly. I also didn't make the veterans go all round the ring as some of them were over 11. Very tired by that time. The doggies all did well and enjoyed getting their rosette and gifts.

Suzanne was pleased with my judging so that was good to me. We left the show and ended the day by taking my sister & brother-in-law for a meal at a restaurant beside our Hotel. We just had to walk a few yard to get our bed afterwards as we had to be up early the next day for David's Judging. Saturday arrived too soon, we got up and David got all dressed up in his best bib & tucker, looked very smart for his judging. We were there quite early where Suzanne greeted us again, she looked really tired however she had carried on. As we all do when it's our Chow Show to make it the best.

David started his judging at 2:30 pm he had good support from all over Canada. The B.O.B. was a lady from Montana which is a long way from Vancouver he was a really nice handsome dog, handled by her professional handler. He could really show that dog. The lady was so pleased as he had also place in the Utility Group in the Big Ring. The puppy he put up was also a lady all the way from Mexico he was a smooth red. Really beautiful, and moved very well.

There was also an exhibit from Alaska.

Mr. Odenkirchen was there too but didn't get put up. This time Suzanne's husband showed a puppy bitch too, she was quite sweet but not David's type. But again everyone seemed happy and very nice to us.

We all got our photos taken with the winners. I haven't had my big photos yet, but the ones my sister took looked good. David got his last week, they are really good. The exhibitors all got presented with their lovely colourful prizes. David gave a chow picture to his BOB I gave my best puppy one of David's clocks, which he made for the Championship Show, they were all quite happy.

We all met up in the evening where the members all paid for a lovely meal for us, and then they had an auction of all Chow things, which sold like hotcakes. The prices ere going up and up. We didn't get much. I bid for a lovely chow sun screen but it went to 100 dollars so I gave up. I did get a lovely plant pot with a hand painted Chow head. It really was lovely and a chow vase, but that was it. However David and I received lovely gifts for our Judging. I got a bush set with a Chow painted on them also sugar and cream container, they were so cute I will treasure them all my life. David received a lovely writing case with a chow head painted on it. It really was something to keep for always, to remember our lovely time judging in Abbotsford Canada.

After the show we left the lovely hotel and went to stay at my sister's new house, which is really nice too. We only had 2 - 3 days with her - too short. However we were there with the help of the Chow Fanciers Club. So this holiday helped me forget what was in front of me for awhile.

It's a special holiday David and I will never forget for all the kindness and fun we had shown to us but all the nice Chow people of Canada. To Suzanne, Harry and Kitty for their welcome to their home Thanks again to the Chow Fanciers of Canada

Did you ever see more contentment
Than you see displayed here?
They look like they were Heaven Sent
And know they are loved dear.

Four little beauties, all in a row
Tummies turned skyward, and quite full I know.
Visions of milk dance through their dreams
And they have sampled a few, or so it seems.

I don't know how they got them
To sleep four at a time
But with their little tummy full
I guess it is a good sign.

Now, of so quiet, but the days
Are surely few

Till they prance from the show ring
With a ribbon of blue.

Sleep on, little Chowlets,
Get plenty of rest
And so you'll be standing
Alongside the best.

Thanks goes to Mary Counihan for sending this little poem.
